

Celebration of Worship

October 11, 2015
Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

The season after Pentecost, also called Ordinary Time, begins the day after Pentecost and ends the day before the First Sunday of Advent. United Methodists have celebrated this season as "Kingdomtide" since 1937, emphasizing Jesus' teachings concerning the Kingdom of God.

Prelude "Lord, I Want To Be a Christian" G. Young

The people come together in the Lord's name. While prelude is being played, the worshipers may engage in the act of worship through quiet meditation and private prayer. For the dedication of presence, please use the registration pad on the pew.

*Call to Worship – inspired by Psalm 147

Liturgist: Praise the Lord! For it is good to sing praises to our God; a song of praise is fitting.

People: The Lord builds up Jerusalem; and gathers the outcasts of Israel.

L: The Lord takes pleasure in the faithful,

P: in those who hope in the Lord's steadfast love.

All: Praise the Lord!

Opening Prayer Offered in Unison

O God of hosts: You are never alone. Even when you seem to us to be solitary in your splendor, you yourself live within the community of your triune being. As you are never alone, so you provide that we shall not be alone. Increase our appreciation for your gift of the church, imperfect though it is because of our many faults. By the unifying power of the Holy Spirit, visit us and bind us together as those who know themselves to be your people; through Jesus Christ, whose promises we trust. Amen.

Personal Prayer Offered in Silence
We pray for the people of the State of Montana, The Treasure State, joined our union on November 11, 1889 (settled in 1811).
For Church Unity: Bangladesh, Bhutan, and Nepal.

Gospel Lesson -TEV Pg. 90 Luke 8:16-21 NIV
TEV: Today's English Version, Pew Bible

¹⁶ "No one lights a lamp and hides it in a jar or puts it under a bed. Instead, he puts it on a stand, so that those who come in can see the light. ¹⁷ For there is nothing hidden that will not be disclosed, and nothing concealed that will not be known or brought out into the open. ¹⁸ Therefore consider carefully how you listen. Whoever has will be given more; whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken from him." ¹⁹ Now Jesus' mother and brothers came to see him, but they were not able to get near him because of the crowd. ²⁰ Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you." ²¹ He replied, "My mother and brothers are those who hear God's word and put it into practice."

This is the Word of God and the people of God.
Thanks be to God. Amen.

Each Day with Torah & the Prophets

Through Moses, God promised blessings: "If you fully obey the Lord your God and carefully follow all his commands I give you today, the Lord your God will set you high above all the nations on earth." Begin each day with Torah, "teachings" of the Lord. End it with the prophets, so that you may find the spiritual foundation of your holy living.
