

Celebration of Worship

Day of Pentecost
May 15, 2016

Easter Sunday begins the GREAT fifty days of the Easter season with the story of the empty tomb and the charge by the messenger to "go and tell!" For the next 40 days – until Ascension Day – Christians tell and retell stories of Jesus' first followers who encountered Him against all hope – amidst doubt, fear, and longing – risen from the dead. On the day of Pentecost the Christians experience outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Prelude "Largo" George F. Handel

While prelude is being played, the worshipers may engage in the act of worship through quiet meditation and private prayer. The dedication of presence may be made by writing the name on the registration pad placed on the pew.

Liturgist: When you hide your face, your creatures are dismayed;
People: when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.

L: When you send forth your spirit, they are created;

P: and you renew the face of the ground.

L: May the glory of the Lord endure for ever,

P: may the Lord rejoice in his works. Alleluia!

Prayer Offered in Unison

Holy Spirit, the life that gives life: You are the cause of all movement; you are the breath of all creatures; you are the salve that purifies our souls; you are the ointment that heals our wounds; you are the fire that warms our hearts; you are the light that guides our feet. Come, O Holy Spirit, come. Let all the world praise you! Amen.

Personal Prayer Offered in Silence

Acts of Apostles -TEV Pg. 159 "Acts 2:1-13" NIV
TEV: Today's English Version, Pew Bible

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. ² Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. ³ They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. ⁴ All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them. ⁵ Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. ⁶ When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. ⁷ Utterly amazed, they asked: "Are not all these men who are speaking Galileans?" ⁸ Then how is it that each of us hears them in his own native language? ⁹ Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome ¹¹ (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs-- we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!" ¹² Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, "What does this mean?" ¹³ Some, however, made fun of them and said, "They have had too much wine."

This is the word of God and the people of God.

Thanks be to God!

Christ-Centered Reading!

As the whole bible focused on Jesus Christ, Messiah and the Son of God, reading the bible help us to make a deeper relationship with Jesus. This chapter-a-day reading plan includes 366 readings from the 1,189 chapters in the bible. This reading plan however will have you engage in much deeper grasp of what the whole bible is all about: the person and work of Jesus Christ.
